Title : Ethiopian Culture and Heritage

Guest : meseret abera (Messi) ( Ethiopia Addis ababa)

Abstract : Ethiopia, one of the world's oldest nations, is renowned for its rich culture, history, and athletic excellence. Home to more than 80 ethnic groups, it celebrates diversity through traditional music, dance, colorful attire, and cuisines such as injera and beyayinetu. Iconic heritage sites like the rock-hewn churches of Lalibela and the castles of Gondar reflect its ancient civilization. Ethiopians are globally admired for long-distance running, producing Olympic champions such as Abebe Bikila and Haile Gebrselassie. Despite modern social and political changes, Ethiopia's cultural festivals—Timket, Meskel, and the coffee ceremony—continue to unite its people in faith, hospitality, and national pride.
